Re: Change in Commercial Contact

Effective Wednesday, December 3rd, 2025, Jenna Matthey will assumes primary commercial contact duties at SSP Railway. She is replacing me, as I am departing the Omaha Track family of companies, on friendly terms, to pursue another opportunity within the industry. Jenna can be reached at jenna@omahatrack.com

Jenna has been with Omaha Track since May 2022, having been in sales and marketing roles. Other railroad experience she has includes 7+ years at Union Pacific Railroad, where Jenna held positions in marketing, sales and strategy.

The remaining team remains the same:

- Bud Mushlitz, SSP President, and Mark Kelehan, Omaha Track CCO will continue handling larger scale, strategic items.
- Jim Soulia continues to run Operations.

Thank you for your support of SSP Railway and thank you for the 6 + years of working together with me. SSP will always have a special place in my heart. Between the Thanksgiving holiday and my new role, the transition has moved quickly, so thank you for your understanding this less personal nature of notification, through an announcement.

Regards,
